

A remarkable transformation in the heart of London

Opening Autumn 2016

Where London's financial and creative quarters converge, the Montcalm Luxury Hotels puts its stamp on the former Royal Mail head office, delivering a fabulously appointed five star stay to Finsbury Square this autumn. Subtle mid-century styling meets twenty-first century tech inside, while a striking new rooftop bar, reveals a fresh perspective of the city. With the Montcalm's trademark touches, beautifully designed bedrooms look out over the lawns of the Finsbury Square. A pioneering urban spa is perfect for one of London's most progressive neighbourhoods, while a destination restaurant and bar bring new energy to its social scene. With understated style and an eye for originality, The Montcalm Royal London House is reborn.
