

Graced with effortless beauty and sophistication, The Biltmore Hotel recently completed a $30 million restoration and redesign of the resort including the lobby, guest rooms, corridors, spa, fitness and golf course. This National Historic Landmark located in the exclusive Miami-Coral Gables area, is a 271-room resort including 174 suites and features spectacular Mediterranean architecture with classic Italian, Moorish, and Spanish influences spread over 150 acres of tropical landscape. A favorite of world leaders and celebrities since its opening in 1926. The hotel offers a newly restored Donald Ross 18-hole, 71-par championship golf course; tennis courts; the largest hotel pool on the East Coast of the United States with private cabanas; a European spa and a renowned fitness center. The hotel's dining destinations include the award winning Palme d'Or, one of the only AAA five Diamond restaurants in Florida; Fontana, a traditional Italian restaurant surrounding The Biltmore courtyard and fountain; the poolside Cascade and The 19th Hole golf centric restaurant. The hotel also boasts a Culinary Academy offering an array of hands-on cooking classes for adults and children. The Biltmore is one of South Florida's preferred sites for leisure and business travel, high-level corporate briefings and public policy conferences, and is an extraordinary wedding destination. The Biltmore is a member of the Leading Hotels of the World.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The Biltmore Hotel's brand new guest rooms embrace an atmosphere of luxury and traditional elegance with views of the magnificent city skyline, the hotel's unique pool, and superb golf course. The accommodations feature an elegant array of transcending tones including luscious plums, silver sage, and accents of regal gold that transports guests into a lavish and tranquil paradise. Detail touches include romantic gemstone chandeliers over the beds, classic moldings, couture fabrics such as cut velvets, embroidered damask, framed art created from original architectural blue-prints, and imported plush carpets. The hotel offers 271 guest rooms, including 174 suites, which range from Junior to Executive suites. The legendary Everglades Presidential Suite and the Merrick Penthouse Suite, named after the resort's founder George Merrick, are among The Biltmore's most distinguished accommodations. Luxury rooms and suites feature European bedding topped with 340-thread-count Egyptian cotton duvet covers, Jerusalem stone-tiled floors, balconies, 65" flat-screen 4K TVs, wireless, high speed Internet for live streaming, minibars with Nespresso machines, safes, and luxurious essential bath amenities.

Two stately Presidential Suites, one of which features a two-story exclusive accommodation decorated with soaring hand-painted ceilings and a three-bedroom penthouse, are located within The Biltmore tower and include views extending to Biscayne Bay.

DINING

The Biltmore Hotel offers one of Miami's most sophisticated and unique international dining experiences. Delivering an unmatched level of quality and creativity with stunning presentations, The Biltmore team is overseen by Executive Chef David Hackett, who, along with his highly qualified culinary experts, create some of the finest gourmet experiences in Miami. Whether you are seeking the warmth of a traditional restaurant interior or the bliss of dining al fresco, either formal or casual, The Biltmore Hotel transports you on an exceptional culinary journey in a stunning historic setting and offers a myriad of award-winning options. The Biltmore Hotel features four restaurants, each with its own distinct personality, as well as two bars and a classic afternoon tea service accompanied by live music.

PALME D'OR

The Biltmore's stunning signature French restaurant presents fine dining at its best with a devotion to quality that is matched by a dedication to providing guests with the highest level of service. Helmed by Michelin starred Chef Gregory Pugin, Palme d'Or has received the coveted Five Diamond Award from AAA. Overlooking the hotel's world-renowned pool, the intimate Palme d'Or dazzles the eye and the palate with beguiling cuisine. Discover a unique sensory and culinary experience as Chef Pugin works within the authentic tradition of French cuisine, reinterpreting the classics and fashioning them with a slight twist of modernism using fresh, local and sustainable and seasonal ingredients. Open Tuesday through Thursday from 6 to 10:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday from 6 to 11 p.m. Seats up to 60 guests, plus two private dining rooms with available seating for 12 and 20 guests. About Chef Gregory Pugin: Born and raised in the southwest region of France, Chef Gregory Pugin boasts an impressive resume including having worked with the renowned master Chef Joel Robuchon in his Paris laboratory, opening restaurants and working on his TV show. After opening L'Atelier Joel Robuchon in New York City, he remained there for two years as Executive Sous Chef. Pugin left Robuchon to begin working as Executive Chef of Veritas, where he was recognized with a Michelin Star and a Rising Chef of the Year nomination from the James Beard Foundation. Before joining The Biltmore, Pugin was the Executive Chef at Le Cirque in the Bellagio in Las Vegas and received the award for Most Savory Dish of the Year in 2011 for his Oxtail Bucatini Timbale. Palme d'Or's Chef de Cuisine says that he is always thinking about the experience, and hopes to make each meal the best meal anyone has ever had.

FONTANA

Fontana offers Italian-inspired cuisine punctuated with local and seasonal ingredients and an exceptional wine list. The handsome rusticity of the restaurant's stone and tile interior, with an open-air kitchen and wood-burning stove, flows into the lush landscaping of the fountain centered courtyard, the site of Miami's most romantic outdoor dining. Fontana mounts one of the country's most celebrated and lavish Sunday Champagne Brunch buffets. Utilizing the restaurant's handsome interior and courtyard, the brunch features an extensive array of selections, including omelet, caviar, lobster, crab, sushi, carving, fresh pasta and tapas stations, plus decadent desserts. Open Monday through Saturday from 7 to 11:30 a.m. (breakfast), 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. (lunch), and 5 to 10:30 p.m. (dinner). Open on Sundays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. (brunch) and 6 to 10:30 p.m. (dinner). Seats up to 225 inside and out. About Chef Giuseppe Galazzi: Born in Ferrara, Italy, Chef Giuseppe Beppe Galazzi developed his culinary passion from his grandfather, a chef, and began his pursuit of the culinary arts at the early age of 14. Heavily influenced by his teachers at the Culinary Institute in Ferrara, his curiosity about food grew into the skill with which he now executes every dish. Chef Galazzi attributes his unique style to his love for traveling, absorbing recipes from various cultures and transforming them into his own creations using local and organic ingredients. When asked what he contributes to Fontana's well-rounded menu, Galazzi replied, I like to offer what people cannot often find in restaurants, and that they would not cook at home.

CASCADE

Cascade is an outdoor oasis tucked under a cascading 23-foot waterfall that overlooks The Biltmore pool. This al fresco restaurant, set in the colonnade-lined loggia, is perched at the edge of the swimming pool with views of the golf course and gardens. The casual fare with sophisticated flair includes daily spa cuisine specials, with an emphasis on local as well as healthy, organic ingredients. The Cascade Bar features fresh fruit tropical drinks, frozen favorites, appetizers and a selection of wines and beers. Open for breakfast from 8 to 11:30 a.m. (Saturday & Sunday only), lunch from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. (daily) and for Bar Bites from 3 to 9 p.m. (daily). Seats up to 60 guests.

19TH HOLE BAR & GRILL

The most casual of the resort's dining sites, The 19th Hole overlooks the golf course and offers light dining, inside or on the terrace. In the bar, numerous flat-screen televisions are continually tuned to sports programming. Open daily from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. Seats up to 48 guests outside and 28 inside.

BILTMORE BAR

Adjacent to Palme d'Or, this handsome wood paneled lounge offers a sophisticated atmosphere. The bar features an extensive selection of premium and vintage liquor, liqueurs and wines, as well as an assortment of draft and bottled beers.

Open Tuesday through Saturday from 4 p.m. to 1:30 a.m.. Seats up to 60 guests.

CELLAR CLUB BAR

Located adjacent to Fontana in the Lower Lobby, the Cellar Club Bar is open early as a coffee shop serving coffee, tea, juice, and warm pastries until 11 a.m. In the afternoon, the Cellar Club Bar is the perfect place to sit and read or enjoy a social beverage indoors. Boasting a unique and extensive variety of wines by the glass and happy hour specials, it doubles as a bar in the evenings.

Open daily from 7 a.m. to midnight. Seats up to 24 guests.

AFTERNOON TEA

One of the few traditional English afternoon teas offered in the Miami area, The Biltmore's is the only one that boasts such a grand setting under the soaring vaulted ceiling of the magnificent lobby and in front of its majestically mantled fireplace. Complemented by melodic harp music on weekdays and acoustic guitar on weekends, the refreshing repast is served daily with seating's at 2 and 3:30 p.m.

CULINARY ACADEMY

Indulge in your passion for gastronomy at The Biltmore's Culinary Academy where we are committed to excellence in the culinary arts. As one of the only hotels with a recreational cooking school operating in North America, the academy has a dedicated learning area and fully equipped professional kitchen offering a variety of classes, workshops and team building events, for both adults and children. Fun and educational, The Biltmore Culinary Academy is ideal for aspiring chefs of all levels.

The Spa Boutique also features a fun and interactive BABOR Beauty Bar, showcasing BABOR's most exclusive products from cult-classics like Ampoule Concentrates to its newest release, DOCTOR BABOR HYDRO RX, a collection formulated with triple-action hyaluronic acid and HY-3 peptides to hydrate, plump and add radiance to dehydrated and lackluster skin.

The full-service salon inside the spa offers body waxing, manicures, pedicures, make-up application and hairstyling and hair treatments for men and women. Open daily from 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m.

GOLF

The Biltmore Golf Course is an 18-hole, 71-par championship course, designed in 1925 by legendary golf course architect Donald Ross. In December of 2018, the course re-opened after a multi-million-dollar restoration project where the course's tees, fairways, bunkers and greens were restored to the original Donald Ross design characteristics and the back tee yardage was increased to 7112 yards.

Early in its storied history, The Biltmore Golf Course was host to The Miami - Biltmore Open, one of the richest prize purse professional golf tournaments of its time. The Biltmore Golf Course has been the annual host site to the Junior Orange Bowl International Golf Championship. Past champions that launched their professional careers from the Junior Orange Bowl include: Jim Simon, Gary Koch, Mark Calcavecchia, Tiger Woods, Camilo Villegas, Michelle McGann, Vicki Goetz, Grace Park, Christie Kerr, Alexis Thompson, Ricky Fowler and Sergio Garcia. The Biltmore Golf Course is also the headquarters of the University of Miami Women's Golf Team.

Amenities at The Biltmore Golf Course include:

- The 19th Hole restaurant and bar
 - Fully stocked golf shop
 - Men's and women's locker rooms
 - Practice facilities including 22,000 square feet of paspalum turf grass, 27 artificial turf hitting surfaces, short game practice area with green, bunker and chipping area, and practice putting green

 - The Biltmore Golf Club Sales, Fitting & Repair Center, in a 675-square-foot indoor facility at the Practice Tee
- The Biltmore Hotel is home to The Jim McLean Golf School. The Jim McLean Golf School offers a variety of golf instruction experiences, including corporate clinics, junior programs, private lessons and multi-day golf schools. Since the school's inception in 1991, the school has firmly established itself as the #1 Golf School in America. From the world class professionals they hire, to the state of the art teaching facility, and to the ever increasing base of satisfied customers, members of the JMGS team are relentless in the pursuit of excellence.

POOL

One of the largest hotel swimming pools in the Continental U.S., The Biltmore's pool measures approximately 23,000 square feet and holds 600,000 gallons of water. In the early days of the resort, it was the scene of spectacular Busby Berkeley-like water shows featuring Esther Williams, diving exhibitions, fashion shows and celebrity parties. Today, it has become the stylish setting for relaxing, outdoor recreation and dining. Enhancing the pool experience are nine private cabanas hidden away amidst palms, hibiscus and bougainvillea. Each is elegantly furnished with teakwood chaises and loveseats, banana leaf ceiling fans, lounge chairs for sunbathing, and outdoor rain showers, along with a host of amenities. Accommodating four to eight guests, the cabanas are served by attentive pool staff ready at any time to provide drinks and other refreshments. Available for daily rentals, doubles accommodate eight people maximum and singles accommodate four people maximum. Hours of operation are from sunrise to 9 p.m.

FITNESS CENTER

The Biltmore's 10,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art Technogym Fitness Center allows guests to maintain their fitness regimen while traveling and features separate areas dedicated for different components of fitness. These areas include Cardio featuring Technogym Excite®, Strength training with a comprehensive free-weight room, and three group exercise studios. The free-weight room features strength equipment with redefined ergonomics, improved comfort, and performance electronic rep count. The Biltmore Hotel's fitness center carries the Technogym's Excite collection for the ultimate workout experience. The Excite collection offers you a fully connected cardio experience.
