

The Inn at the Spanish Steps is one of Rome's best-kept secrets. Member of The Small Luxury Hotels of the world it is uniquely located on Rome's famed shopping street, Via Condotti, and beside the historic coffee-house Antico Caffè Greco, founded in 1760. Listed as a national monument, The Inn was a stately home in the 1800's and is now fully renovated with all modern comforts.

All rooms are of the highest standards enjoying absolute luxury with true character. Colours are rich and vibrant and contemporary décor combines perfectly with original art work, architectural features and the occasional frescoed or beamed ceiling.

The icing on the cake is the fabulous roof-top club like lounge with panoramic terrace which guests can enjoy at any time of the day be it buffet breakfast, a light lunchtime snack or an evening aperitivo amidst the olive and lemon trees of the lush garden before wondering out for dinner in one of Rome's many excellent restaurants.
